Children wanting to participate in the CIT program must fill out these questions. Please print clearly.

1. Why do you want to be a CIT at Laurel Day Camp?

2. What age groups would you most like to work with?

3. What do you enjoy about this age group?

4. What do you find challenging about this age group?

5. What activities (pool, arts and crafts, sports, etc.) would you most like to work with?

6. What is the biggest strength you think you bring the program?

Please submit this form to the Assistant Camp Director, Cody Pimental by email to cody@laurel-school.org, by fax to 508-632-6555 or by mail to 1436 Long Pond Road, Brewster, MA 02631.

Once we have received this form, Cody will contact you by email or phone to set up a time for an interview; interviews will begin in early May and continue upon arrival of the applicant's start date. If accepted into the leadership program, the Assistant Camp Director will email the families with an acceptance letter and group assignment. If you have any questions about our CIT Program, or the camp, please feel free to contact Cody.

I acknowledge that I understand the CIT Youth Leadership Program, both as a camper and youth leader, my responsibilities, and that I have answered the above questions on my own, to the best of my ability.
